TABERNACLE INTERNATIONAL CHURCH
SCHOOL OF MINISTRY HONOR CODE

Professionals with the highest of responsibilities as students of the ministry are required by society and God to show a level of integrity that is beyond reproach.

There are two reasons an Honor Code is needed:

1. There should be a sense of satisfaction that you have done what is Biblically correct.
2. There should be a recognition that people around you see and know that you are a Christian in all you say and do.

INTEGRITY STARTS IN THE CLASSROOM!

Lying: Lying is making an assertion which intentionally deceives or misleads. This deceitful assertion may be oral, written, or clearly communicated by a gesture. Your responsibility for the truth goes beyond what is said or written. It includes what is understood and perceived by others.

Stealing: Stealing is defined as intentionally depriving someone else of property or service without permission.

Cheating: Cheating is defined as attempting or aiding in the attempt to receive undeserved credit or to give an unfair advantage. The essence of cheating is the act of deceiving an instructor into thinking that some piece of work is your own, when in fact, it is not. The submitting of work which is not documented indicates that it is entirely the work of the student.

Conduct: At all times and in all situations the student will conduct himself in a Christ-like manner. This applies to both classroom and personal situations. At all times, you must reflect the values a minister of Christ would hold, at home, work, recreation, and in the classroom.
